HONORING CARL CHILTON'S 95TH BIRTHDAY

HON. FILEMON VELA

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 16, 2018

Mr. VELA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the 95th birthday of Brownsville champion Carl Chilton. Born in 1923, Mr. Chilton was one of four in the 1940 graduating class of Port Isabel High School.

Upon graduating from high school, Mr. Chilton attended the Texas College of Arts and Industries at Kingsville—today known as Texas A&M University—Kingsville. His undergraduate career was shortened; in 1942 he enlisted in the Army Air Corps to serve our country in World War II. He earned his wings and was commissioned as a second lieutenant in 1944. Texas and the United States are forever grateful for his service and leadership throughout his 13 missions in France and other parts of the world as a member of the 410th Bomb Group.

After serving in the military, Mr. Chilton enrolled in the University of Texas at Austin, where he graduated with an accounting degree. Following graduation, he served as a professor at Brownsville Junior College, where he taught introductory business. Upon completion of the CPA exam, he founded, with partner Bill Long, the accounting firm of Long & Chilton in 1951. Despite a slow start, the firm successfully expanded over the years and attracted the best talent under his leadership. The prestigious Texas Society of CPAs acknowledged his exceptional work in the field by electing him president of the organization in 1979.

Mr. Chilton's exemplary dedication and hard work ensured that he left the largest accounting firm in the Valley in good hands at the time of his retirement in 1988. The now-merged offices in Brownsville, Harlingen and McAllen continue to thrive in the South Texas community.

A man of family and service, Mr. Chilton never ceased to engage with the community in ways that deeply benefitted South Texas. He has been a loyal member of the Rotary Club for 53 years, served as president and chairman of the Brownsville Public Utilities Board, and was president of the Valley Zoological Society. He is also an active member of the First United Methodist Church, where he met and married the late Ruth Lewis Chilton.

In addition, Mr. Chilton led the development of the nationally recognized Brownsville Tennis Center. As president of the Brownsville Tennis Club, he played an instrumental role in its founding and continued growth. Thanks to his work, the United States Tennis Association (USTA) chose the Brownsville Tennis Center as winner of the Facility of the Year Award in 2001. His exceptional work pioneered a movement encouraging fitness and recreation in the region.

The highlights of his post-retirement community engagement are many. He wrote books about the City of Brownsville and how to find success in the accounting world. His published work includes: "Successful Small Client Accounting Practice," "The Successful Professional Client Accounting Practice: A Complete Guide to Profit Opportunities and Techniques," "70 Years of Airport History in Brownsville," "Fort Brown: The First Border Post," "Memories of a Military Pilot: 1942 to 1945," and "Brownsville Families 1848–2012." His book, "Brownsville: The First 100 Years, 1848–1948," serves as an important collection of the history of Brownsville and its organizations that have made the city what it is today, a welcoming and kind community.

Mr. Speaker, I take this opportunity to honor and celebrate Carl Chilton's 95th birthday. I ask my colleagues to join me and Mr. Chilton's family and friends in wishing him well on this special occasion. Mr. Chilton's devotion to his family and community make him a great role model for the people of Brownsville Texas, and he exemplifies the best of South Texas.

CONGRATULATING LISA HOLT

HON. MICHELLE LUJAN GRISHAM

OF NEW MEXICO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Ms. MICHELLE LUJAN GRISHAM of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Lisa Holt of Cochiti Pueblo in New Mexico for her role in the Pueblo Pottery Mug project and her success as a Native artist.

The Pueblo Pottery Mug project started as a collaboration between five Pueblo artists and the first Pueblo-owned Starbucks in New Mexico. The mugs were first sold in 2016 at the Starbucks store in Albuquerque. Each mug was handcrafted by a different Pueblo artist to celebrate the opening of the new store and to symbolize the collaboration between New Mexico Pueblos and Starbucks. After quickly selling out of the unique mugs—selling over 6,000 mugs—the Shumakolowa gift shop collaborated with the artists to sell mugs at their location in the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center.

Ms. Holt comes from an illustrious family of artists and first learned the methods of making pottery from her mother. Her work is unique because it involves collaboration with an artist from another Pueblo. In this beautiful blend of culture and art, clay from her native Pueblo is sent to Santo Domingo to be painted. Ms. Holt's work typically incorporates traditional Cochiti traditions such as human and animal figures, but she has been working to expand some of these designs into more contemporary forms.

Mr. Speaker, I applaud Lisa Holt for being a part of the Pueblo Pottery Mug project. This project has given the community, as well as visitors to New Mexico, an opportunity to appreciate usable pieces of art that are inspired by Native culture and traditions. I look forward to seeing this project continue to flourish and support talented Native artists from Pueblos throughout New Mexico.
